old for a may. The market-house of Concepcion was bed up by the city authorities and occures at notice square. The producer brings and last fruits, vegetables, butter and graphs as the first, etc., and barters them to the best advantage, without the aid of ground for sale. Entering the building, to the left we find the butchers, who cut all their meat into long strips, as if it also were to be said by the card. But it is not, they harge has torn the claims from their shell nd strong them on stems of grass—a doge mastem. She sells them at the rate o three straws - thirty six clams - for licents and cheap enough it is. To the right are rows of fruit merchants, mostly women, splendid recruss plump fresh and ruley rod, are feel on sticks in a close bunch so that they resemble miniature can balls. The price is an centavo (one cent) for a stick, which means about half a pint of apricots, peaches and vegetables, fowls alive and eachling; bleating hids and grunning pigs; coarse boots, shoes and sandals; waiting to sear the inner man of whoever is hardy enough to eat them. As itt all Chill, the police regulations of Concepcion are Minirable. An average specimen stands before my window—a half-breed Indian drossed in full military toggery, armed with a bayonet and a small bone whistle, and every quarter of an hour he is required to how a shell blast on the ing in gait, with a general hang-dog air and countenance only enough to stop a clock; but somehow he and his fellows manage to preserve perfect order. Perhaps, howto preserve perfect order. Perhaps, however, this is largely due to the great body of secret police, who, ununiformed and unknown, constantly patrol the city in each of one, and he will probaby reply, see cuta una, source—$10 apiece, common crime—he is sound to a post with two and a stout rone, and given use of the corrier of the corr

Nine years ago the national congress appropriated $150,000 to introduce the best methods of teaching, and sent a man to the United States and various states of Ferrice teaching the states and various countries of Europe, to study the plans purnon at the best colleges in Europe, regard-less of expense, to fit them for teachers of Chillan youth; while tennic instructors are trained in the excellent normal schools that have recently been established in Santiago the primary. The sext of learning is the National University at the capital, which has a "council of education," whose duty it is to superintend the higher and intermedifree, the government owning the buildings and paying the teachers. The school houses of Conception are so constructed that their paties afford amper play-grounds, and the children are not seen outside the walls from the time they enter in the morning till school closes at night. Custom decrees that girls of the better class, above the arc of ten years, must never go to and fro mone, even in the family car-riage, but they are always attended by an elacity femme servant. In all Chinan pub-lic schools the Cathonic catechism is an im-portant text-book, in daily use. As to the Scavengers.

For the past few nights the scavengers may been using Rusa street as a thorough fare to the dumping grounds. The smell is something fearful. They begin as early a could be used to equal advantage, and peo-ple who are compelled to work until late at night relieved of the perfume which is rather too rich for comfort.

J. J. Goodman of hear Mansfield yester-day brought to this city the first bale of cot-ton raised in Tarrant county. The bale weighed 468 pounds and was bought by Simon Gabert for 8 cents a pound. Mr. Goodman received $62 for the bale, $40 for the cotton and a premium of $22, which was made up by the merchants of the city. He has in 105 acres of cotton, and will pick fifteen bales this month off of seventy-five fifteen bales this month off of seventy-fiv

At the Jail.

There was some little more excitement around the jail, yesterday than has been the case for several days past, yet nothing of great importance occurred. The two women arrested at the stockyards, a negro named Parker for assault, one named George Younger, for disturbing a meeting, and W. J. Bell, arrested in Denver, were admitted, and one negro was sent out on the road. The prisoner, McCloud, is no better, and it is watch chain. He succeeded in overpower-ing his prisoner and got her safely into jail. Meanwhile Joyce and Wicher Were nose; ing along with their senermation friend, who wanted to sing, but was the full. Their Bully landed for in Juli, and Witcher went to buy a new suidle.
